Using Cross-Functional Teams to Implement Process Reengineering	1D-22
Benefits of a Cross-Functional Team	1D-23
Definition of a Cross-Functional Team	1D-23
Differences Between Cross-Functional Teams and Other Teams	1D-24
Role of the Accounting Team	1D-24
Establishing the Mission	1D-24
Description of Project	1D-25
Purpose of Team	1D-25
Expected Outcomes	1D-25
Constraints Faced by the Team	1D-26
Role of Top Management	1D-26
Implementation of Recommendations	1D-26
Start-Up	1D-26
Ground Rules	1D-27
Planning for the Project	1D-27
Undertaking the Project	1D-27
Common Mistakes Made by Cross-Functional Teams	1D-28
Different Points of View	1D-28

Lack of Clarity About the Team's Role	1D-28
Power Struggles.....	1D-28
Team Setting Itself Apart from the Organization.....	1D-28
Priority of Team Schedule	1D-28
Failure to Control Resources Available to the Team.....	1D-29
Failure to Provide Regular Feedback	1D-29
Ineffective Leadership	1D-29
Lack of Top Management Support and Commitment.....	1D-29
Failure to Establish a Method of Performance Evaluation	1D-30
